Navy School

1. New quarters are currently being built for the Bulgarian Navy School. The new building, which is to be of large dimension, will be located on 6 Septemvri Boulevard in Stalin, adjoining the city bicycle race track to the northeast. Pending its transfer to its new quarters, the Bulgarian Navy School is still housed on Stefan Karadzhov Street inside a rectangle the sides of which are, to the northwest Karadzhov Street, to the southeast Slavyansk Street, (both of these streets are parallel to the sea), to the northeast Tsar Osvoboditel Boulevard and to the southwest Georgi Dimitrov Boulevard (formerly Slivnitsa). (See sketch attached as Appendix A on page 2).

2. The new Navy School will be named "Makhimov", and it will have a capacity of housing up to 2000 persons. It is intended not only to take in young people who have finished their high school education and wish to become naval officers, but also to accept boys as young as 11 who are attracted by this career.

3. The "G. Dimitrov" Shipyards are located on the south bank of the Stalin canal and employ 2000 to 3000 workers. (See sketch attached as Appendix B on page 3.) Since these shipyards are intended to take on more and more importance, they have recently been equipped with new installations. They now produce tugboats and oil tankers.
